

EXHIBIT “A”

3. I am the President, CEO, and Chairman of the Board of VirtualAgility, Inc., (“VirtualAgility”). I have been the President of VirtualAgility since December 2004, and later became CEO. I was also President of Agility Management Partners, Inc., a predecessor company to VirtualAgility.

4. VirtualAgility, Inc. is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware that maintains its principal place of business in Winchester, Massachusetts, which is a suburb near the city of Boston. VirtualAgility has maintained its principal place of business in Winchester since its incorporation in 2004. VirtualAgility has never had a corporate presence in California.

5. VirtualAgility owns all rights and title to the patent-in-suit – U.S. Patent No. 8,095,413 (“the ’413 Patent”), titled “Processing Management Information,” covering inventions by VirtualAgility’s founder Douglas Beaven. Mr. Beaven passed away in 2010.

6. I have been actively involved in and have personal knowledge of many aspects of VirtualAgility’s background and business activities including but not limited to: VirtualAgility’s initial formation and corporate history; VirtualAgility’s intellectual property portfolio and patent prosecution efforts; VirtualAgility’s day-to-day business activities; VirtualAgility’s organizational structure; the development and operation of VirtualAgility’s products and services; VirtualAgility’s commercialization of the inventions of the ’413 Patent; VirtualAgility’s meetings and communications with actual and potential customers; and VirtualAgility’s past and present employees and board members. Documents pertaining to these matters are located at VirtualAgility’s offices in Winchester, on the computers of employees based in the Boston area, and at the offices of its Texas-based litigation counsel.

7. I understand that I might be called to testify in deposition and/or at trial in the above referenced case about one or more of the aforementioned areas. Thus, I expect to testify at the trial of this case.

8. I understand that the defendants in the above referenced case seek severance and transfer of the case to the Northern District of California. I understand that no single district will be convenient for all the parties, including all defendants. As compared to the Northern District of California, the Eastern District of Texas is, in VirtualAgility's business judgment, a much more convenient and less expensive forum for VirtualAgility for several reasons.

9. There is a close connection to Texas as a result of facts that I understand may be pertinent to this litigation.

- a. For example, beginning in 2005, VirtualAgility partnered with IBM regarding integration of VirtualAgility's OPS Center and WorkCenter software solutions with IBM products to create crisis management products to be distributed by IBM. The IBM executive responsible for the VirtualAgility-IBM relationship worldwide was located at IBM's facilities in Dallas, Texas, and an IBM key technical lead was located at IBM's facilities in Coppell, Texas. VirtualAgility has also worked closely with IBM technical and sales support personnel at other IBM facilities in several locations throughout Texas regarding the integration of VirtualAgility's and IBM's software, hardware, and technical resources. IBM's facilities in Texas were used for staging and demonstration of the integrated products. VirtualAgility personnel traveled to Texas regarding installation of VirtualAgility's solutions at IBM's facilities. IBM now offers a “Salesforce integration” service. See <http://www-01.ibm.com/software/integration/cast-iron-cloud-integration/salesforce-integration/>.

- b. Multiple companies that VirtualAgility believes have infringed the ’413 Patent have their principal places of business either within or near this District. These companies include defendants Dr. Pepper Snapple Group, Inc., based in Plano, TX; Kimberly-Clark Corporation, based in Irving, TX; Dell, Inc., based in Round Rock, TX; and BMC Software, Inc., based in Houston, TX.
- c. Also, VirtualAgility believes that the remaining defendants – Salesforce.com, NBCUniversal, LivingSocial, FedEx, and Bank of America – have conducted business activities and/or infringing activities within or directed at this District. With the exception of SalesForce, these remaining defendants have their principal places of business on the East Coast or in the Southeast.
- d. I understand based on published information that Salesforce and Dell Services, located in Plano, Texas, have an extensive “Platinum Partner” relationship regarding the promotion, configuration and integration of Salesforce products. For example, Dell has a “Salesforce Consulting Practice,” which it launched in September 2012, and has employees that are “Salesforce.com Developers” in Dallas, Texas. See <http://www.dell.com/Learn/us/en/uscorp1/secure/2012-09-18-dell-services-salesforce-consulting?c=us&l=en&s=corp>; (last accessed May 23, 2013); <http://jobs.dell.com/texas/engineering/jobid3688279-salesforce.com-developer-jobs> (last accessed May 23, 2013).

- e. The resulting heavy concentration of defendants within or near this District, coupled with the fact that all defendants are believed to conduct business activities and/or infringing activities within or directed at this District, including the close partnership of Salesforce and Dell, indicate that this District is an appropriate and highly sensible venue for this patent infringement action.
- f. I further understand that several of the defendants have appeared before this Court on multiple occasions. I also understand that this Court has extensive experience with patent infringement cases, and resolves these very complex cases effectively and efficiently. The familiarity of the various defendants with this Court and the Court's experience with patent infringement cases further indicated that this District is an appropriate venue for VirtualAgility's case.

10. As compared to the Northern District of California, the Eastern District of Texas is, in VirtualAgility's business judgment, a much more convenient and less expensive forum for VirtualAgility for at least the following reasons:

- a. Given that I reside in the Boston area, it would be more convenient for me to travel to the federal courthouse in Marshall, Texas to attend and testify at trial than if the trial were held in the Northern District of California. Testifying at a trial in Northern California would be more burdensome and expensive as compared to testifying at trial in Marshall, Texas given that Marshall is significantly closer in distance to the Boston area than Northern California. The cost of transportation, food and lodging for VirtualAgility's witnesses appearing at trial would also be significantly less.

- b. It would be less expensive and far more convenient for VirtualAgility's employees or contractors to attend trial, if required, in Texas than Northern California. Similarly, I have i) in Chart 1, determined based on the parties' and non-parties' locations their respective total travel times from their nearest major airport to Marshall (via Shreveport, LA airport or Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport plus driving time) as compared to flying to the San Francisco (via San Francisco International Airport plus driving time). The shortest total times are in bold.; and ii) in Chart 2, determined the distance in road miles between the parties' principal places of business to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Marshall Division as compared to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California in San Francisco. The shortest driving distance is in bold. My sources were Mapquest, Travelocity, and other travel/hotel web sites.

- c. As a small company with limited resources, it is extremely important that VirtualAgility be represented by competent and experienced patent litigation counsel with adequate resources to support a potentially multi-year litigation, irrespective of whether such counsel is located in VirtualAgility's home state of Massachusetts or elsewhere. VirtualAgility's chosen counsel at the law firm of Nix, Patterson & Roach, LLP ("Nix") have offices in Daingerfield, Texas and Texarkana, Texas, which are both in this District and in Irving, Texas, which is very close to this District. The firm also has offices in Austin, Texas, near defendant Dell's principal place of business in Round Rock, Texas. The Nix law firm's experience and prior success in litigating patent cases in this District were important to VirtualAgility. In addition, the close proximity of the Nix law firm to the Court and the Texas-based defendants in this case is economically beneficial to VirtualAgility because of the expected lower expenses associated with travel for its attorneys to attend court hearings and depositions of those defendants that reside within or near the District. If this case were transferred to Northern California, it would be an increased burden on VirtualAgility because of the increased cost and time of travel required for its Texas-based counsel to attend hearings and trial in Northern California.

- d. If this case was transferred to Northern California, VirtualAgility would have to endure the additional expense of its litigation and outside general counsel attending court hearings in a location far away from their offices, whereas attending court hearings in the Eastern District of Texas would result in far less travel expenses. And to the extent that VirtualAgility's employees choose to or are required to attend court hearings or trial, traveling from Boston to Marshall is less expensive and less time-consuming than traveling to Northern California.

11. I understand that the following non-parties may have relevant testimony to offer in this case, but do not reside or work in California and are not within the control of VirtualAgility such that they can be compelled to testify in Northern California simply at VirtualAgility's request and without a subpoena.

- a. Janet Beaven is the surviving widow of Douglas Beaven, the sole inventor of the '413 Patent and founder of Agility Management Service, LLC, and Agility Management Partners, Inc., which later was acquired by and became part of VirtualAgility, Inc., which Mr. Beaven also founded. Ms.

Beaven lives in Boston, Massachusetts. I have known Ms. Beaven personally since 2002 and have come to believe that she has personal knowledge regarding at least Mr. Beaven's personal and work history; VirtualAgility's and its predecessor companies' early formation, beginning in 1998; Mr. Beaven's activities involving the Patent-in-Suit; business activities of Agility Management Partners, Inc.; VirtualAgility's corporate history; VirtualAgility's prior organizational structure; and the early development of VirtualAgility's products and services. Marshall is much closer to her residence in Boston than Northern California such that it will be less burdensome to her if she testifies at trial in Marshall.

- b. Gordon E. Nelson is a now-retired patent prosecution attorney and lives in Rowley, Massachusetts, which is about thirty miles from Boston. Mr. Nelson was active in and has personal knowledge regarding the prosecution of the '413 Patent, which is the patent at issue in the above referenced case. Marshall is much closer to Mr. Gordon's residence than Northern California such that it is less burdensome to him if he is requested or required to testify at trial.
- c. John K. Harrop is a patent attorney at the law firm of Dickinson Wright PLLC in Washington, D.C., and currently prosecutes VirtualAgility's patents. Mr. Harrop has personal knowledge regarding the prosecution of the '413 Patent, which is the patent at issue in the above referenced case, and other VirtualAgility patents. I understand that he lives and works in the Washington, D.C. area. Marshall is much closer to Washington, D.C.

than Northern California such that it should be more convenient and less costly to VirtualAgility if he is requested or required to testify at trial in Texas.

- d. Jason A. Reyes is a patent attorney and formerly at the law firm of Hale and Dorr in Boston. Mr. Reyes is believed to have personal knowledge regarding the prosecution of the '413 Patent, which is the patent at issue in the above referenced case. I understand that he presently works for EMC Corporation in Hopkinton, Massachusetts, which is less than thirty-five miles from Boston. Marshall is much closer to Hopkinton than Northern California such that it should be less burdensome if he is requested or required to testify at trial in Texas.
- e. Tom Roberts is an IBM employee at IBM's facilities located in Dallas, Texas, and his title is Global Client Executive, ISV and Developer Relations. Mr. Roberts was the Global Client Executive in charge of the VirtualAgility relationship with IBM worldwide. I believe that Mr. Roberts is still employed at IBM in Dallas.
- f. Hung Tack Kwan is an IBM employee at IBM's facilities located in Coppell, Texas. Mr. Kwan was one of the key technical leads and as Senior IT Architect was responsible for installation, testing, demonstration and integration of VirtualAgility technology in Coppell, Texas and elsewhere. I believe that Mr. Kwan is still employed at IBM in Coppell.

12. The defendants have raised the residence address of Mr. Michael P.C. Carns, who is on the VirtualAgility Board of Directors, in support of their motion to transfer. Mr. Carns is a retired general with the United States Air Force and currently a Special Government Employee (SGE) with the National Security Agency (“NSA”). He has a residence in Pebble Beach, California, but he works at the NSA headquarters in Fort Meade, Maryland, and travels extensively such that it is quite common for Mr. Carns to attend the Directors’ meetings by telephonic conference. Mr. Carns is not and has never been involved in the development of VirtualAgility’s technology or its products, and I do not believe that he has personal knowledge of the engineering involved in VirtualAgility’s technology or VirtualAgility’s products. Mr. Carns is not and has never been involved in the development of VirtualAgility’s intellectual property, including its patents. Mr. Carns’ role as a Director has been limited to that of an advisor typical of a member of a company’s Board of Directors. Although Mr. Carns has some general knowledge concerning VirtualAgility based on his role as a Director, I do not believe that he is an essential trial witness.

13. As noted earlier, the sole inventor of the ’413 Patent is Mr. Douglas Beaven, who is deceased. VirtualAgility has other United States patents (U.S. Patent Nos. 7,698,160; 8,095,594; 8,082,301; 8,275,836) that are not currently asserted in this case. To the extent that any of the inventors of the non-asserted VirtualAgility patents are deemed to have relevant testimony to offer in this case, all of them except for Robert Torchon, currently live in Massachusetts, Georgia, or London, all of which are much closer to Texas than Northern California.

- a. I am one of several inventors on U.S. Patent Nos. 7,698,160; 8,095,594; 8,082,301; and 8,275,836. As noted earlier, testifying at trial in Texas is more convenient for me than in Northern California.

- b. Ms. Janet Ahlgren is one of several inventors on U.S. Patent Nos. 7,698,160; 8,095,594; 8,082,301; and 8,275,836. Ms. Ahlgren is Vice President of Operations at VirtualAgility. Ms. Ahlgren resides in Winchester, Massachusetts, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.
- c. Mr. Kevin Kelley is one of several inventors on U.S. Patent Nos. 7,698,160; 8,095,594; 8,082,301; and 8,275,836. Mr. Kelley is a former employee at VirtualAgility. Mr. Kelley resides in Wakefield, Massachusetts, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.
- d. Mr. Gorham Palmer is one of several inventors on U.S. Patent Nos. 7,698,160; 8,095,594; 8,082,301; and 8,275,836. Mr. Palmer is recent Chief Creative Officer at VirtualAgility. He resides in London, United Kingdom, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.
- e. Mr. Andy Chang is one of several inventors on U.S. Patent No. 8,082,301. Mr. Chang is a former employee of VirtualAgility. Mr. Chang resides in Winchester, Massachusetts, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.
- f. Mr. Gideon Moran is one of several inventors on U.S. Patent No. 8,082,301. Mr. Moran is Vice President of Product Development at VirtualAgility. Mr. Moran resides in Westford, Massachusetts, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.
- g. Mr. Hung Phan is one of several inventors on U.S. Patent No. 8,082,301. Mr. Phan is a recent Application and System Manager at VirtualAgility.

Mr. Phan resides in Norcross, Georgia, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.

- h. Mr. Nhat Phan is of several inventors on U.S. Patent No. 8,082,301. Mr. Phan is a Senior Engineer at VirtualAgility. Mr. Phan resides in Canton, Massachusetts, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.
- i. Rob Torchon is also one of several inventors on U.S. Patent No. 8,082,301, and he resides in California to the best of my knowledge. However, Mr. Torchon only worked with VirtualAgility for a little over a year, and only as a contractor, and has not been employed by VirtualAgility since September 2006. I believe that any information Mr. Torchon has will be merely duplicative of that available from the other VirtualAgility employees and inventors that I have identified.

14. I understand that the following additional former VirtualAgility employees might have relevant testimony to offer in this case, but do not reside or work in California and are not within the control of VirtualAgility such that they can be compelled to testify in California simply at VirtualAgility's request and without a subpoena.

- a. Mr. John Hughes is a former Configuration Manager for VirtualAgility. He currently lives and works in the New York City area, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.
- b. Ms. Zorana Ilic is a former Director of Project Implementation at VirtualAgility. She currently lives and works in Northern Virginia, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.

- c. Mr. Steve Green is a former Vice President of Business Development at VirtualAgility. He currently lives and works in Northern Virginia, which is much closer to Texas than Northern California.

16. VirtualAgility has on several occasions met with representatives of defendant Merrill Lynch in Boston relating to the demonstration and trial version of VirtualAgility's products and services. The Boston-based representatives of Merrill Lynch were Messrs. Raj Sharma and Ken Sharma. I understand that they are still employees of Merrill Lynch and work in the Boston area, which is closer to this District than the Northern District of California.

15. As noted above, VirtualAgility partnered with IBM for VirtualAgility's OPS Center and WorkCenter software solutions to be distributed by IBM for use by IBM's customers in the United States and globally. In addition to the IBM personnel throughout Texas, other IBM personnel were located in the Eastern United States, which is closer to this District than the Northern District of California.

16. Current and former customers of VirtualAgility's WorkCenter software platform, which practices the '413 Patent, include Forbes.com, IBM, Federal Emergency Management Agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, State of Missouri, and the U.S. Customs and Border Protection. In each of these relationships, the people and entities that VirtualAgility met and worked with in implementing WorkCenter were located not in or near Northern California, but were much closer to Texas because they were in cities such as New York City and Washington, D.C.

I declare, under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that all statements made herein of my knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true.

Executed on May 24, 2013.
